Puyallup, WA - Several highly adoptable dogs were available Friday afternoon at Puyallup Metro Animal Services.

Little Missy, the young Beagle, is still at the shelter. She has been here for over 3 wks now. She barks if you walk away from her kennel run because she wants to have some attention. Missy is a beautiful dog looking for a wonderful forever home.

A new young male named Hey U is up for adoption. He is listed as a Chow/Collie Mix. Hey U is exceptionally friendly. He immediately rolls on his back from some love and gently offers his paw so that he can touch you. He appears to be a dog that would make a wonderful family companion. He is a bit on the small side (approx 40-45 lbs) - good for a smaller home or condo.

Chelsea is a 2 yr-old Pomeranian mix that acts like a little showgirl. If you are a fan of small dogs, run, don't walk, to adopt this precious girl. She has an endearing personality and literally stands on her back legs when you approach her kennel run. She is extremely friendly.

Three black mix-breed puppies were in the play-yard on Friday afternoon. The small puppies had been dropped and left at the shelter. They are endearing, as all puppies are. If you are interested in adopting a puppy, please remember that this is a 12-15 yr commitment. Please be committed to your dog for his or her entire life.

As always, the kittens and cats are included in the slideshow. Of special mention is Joy. She has been at the shelter for quite some time and she is losing her joy. This afternoon was the first time in several weeks that she sat sadly in the back of her cage, instead of approaching to meow and visit. She is a big, beautiful cat with a lovely personality and she needs a home.

A special thank you to Terrie of Tazzy's Animal Transports/Siamese & Collie Rescue. I was able to transport 4 cats to Terrie on Friday afternoon. She graciously took these lovely cats into her non-profit rescue where they will be safe until they are adopted. Two of the cats were "old" by adopter's standards and their chances of being adopted at the animal shelter were slim.

If you are interested in visiting the Puyallup Metro Animal Shelter, you can locate it at 1200 39th Ave SE, Puyallup, WA. If you are unable to adopt one of these beautiful cats or dogs, please take a moment to circulate this article. The more people that see these cats and dogs, the better their chances of being adopted.

If you volunteer with a 501(c)3 organization and are interested in pulling an animal to your rescue, please contact the shelter at (253) 841-5595. For initial pulls, the shelter requires a faxed copy of the non-profit paperwork, and a call from the director of the organization.

Examiner Note: Everytime that I visit the cats and dogs at the shelter, I am struck by the same thought. These little souls are completely at the mercy of others. They have no say in what happens to them - whether they live or die. Please take a moment to do your part and help circulate their information. They have nobody except you and your kindness and compassion to help them. Thank you.
